

PLAN IS OUTLINED FOR CLEARING G. W. U.

Trust Deed for $350,000 on Medical School
First Step.

WILL BE TAKEN BEFORE CONGRESS

Rumor Denied Trustees Will Be Held Responsible for Funds
Taken From Endowments.

To clear George Washington University of debt within ten years and to put the institution on such a strong financial basis in that time as to make the raising of funds to meet its expenses easy, is the plan for the institution as outlined today by its president, Rear Admiral Charles H. Stockton.

For immediate assistance it is planned to place a deed of trust for $350,000 on the university's medical school on H street near Fourteenth.

Congress to Be Asked.

This will be recommended in the report of Attorney General Wickham to be sent to Congress this week, according to the president and other officers of the university. The amount will cover loans taken from various endowment funds for general expenses.

According to A. H. Snow, chairman of the board of trustees, the report of the Attorney General recommends that the loan be asked for ten years. "If this can be done," Mr. Snow said, "the university will be clear of debt, and all the endowment funds again will be intact. No attempt will be made to raise the money, but individuals will be asked to bestow endowments for the express purpose of restoring old endowments."

Was Done at Yale.

"This was done at Yale, and we expect it can be done here," he added.

According to the books of the university the present outstanding debts amount to about $15,000. This debt is said to be due to bad accounting during the last fiscal year. A modern system of accounting will be installed early in January.

The rumor that the trustees are to be held responsible for the funds taken out of the various endowments is untrue, according to President Stockton. "This procedure," the president said, "would involve many men long since dead."

POSTOFFICE ISSUES TWO FRAUD ORDERS

Mercantile Company and Alleged Astrologer Denied Use of Mails.

Two orders directing postmasters to refuse the payment of money orders addressed to persons named therein, on the charge of using the mails to defraud, were issued today by Postmaster General Hitchcock.

The Star Mercantile Company, of Toledo, Ohio, is named in one of the orders. It is claimed that the men operating this company offer to employ agents to sell groceries at cut rates, asserting that high salaries may be earned. To applicants for positions they are claimed to state that a deposit of $50 to $75 is required to cover the cost of their sample cases and guarantee good faith. Sincerely are not sold by this concern assert the postoffice inspectors, who claim that the transactions usually end with the payment of the deposit.

Marshall J. Miller, who, it is alleged, claims to be an astrologer, using the name of Prof. Tobias Raphael, is denied the further use of the mails by the second order. Inspectors report that the "professor" is not an astrologer, that he has a set of printed forms, in imitation of typewritten letters, which he sends to his victims in return for various sums, ranging from 25 cents to $1.

AID OFFERED GIRL BY "PILLAR OF FIRE"

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—Trustees of the sect known as the "Pillar of Fire" called at Ellis Island today and offered a bond that Lillian Maude Allen, a prepossessing young Englishwoman, detained there, would not become a public charge.

An order for Miss Allen's deportation had already been signed, and the visitors left, saying they would appeal to Washington. Miss Allen, they said, is of age, although she was held up on her arrival here on Saturday on the steamer St. Paul at the request of her father, a wealthy Englishman, who claimed that she is a minor.

She had only $9 with her, but said she was en route to the headquarters of the "Pillar of Fire" Society, at Boundbrook, N. J., where she was to be trained as a missionary.

The authorities say that so far as Miss Allen is concerned her religious views have nothing to do with her detention. The "Pillar of Fire" organization is supported by voluntary contributions, so that there is no question of her becoming a public charge, while the cable of her father saying she was under age is an added reason why she should be sent back to England.

No Appeal Received By Immigration Bureau

No appeal in the case of Lillian Maude Allen, the English girl recruit for the "Holy Jumpers" sect, now under order of deportation at Ellis Island, has been received in Washington, officials of the Department of Commerce and Labor.

It is not the general practice to accept such a bond as the one offered in Miss Allen's case, and decision is left to the department officials. Formerly, bonds were accepted, but, as far as possible, the practice is being discontinued.

Miss Allen's religious tendencies have nothing to do with the case, state the officials. The case is encumbered with arrears, penalties and costs to an amount which so nearly equals its sale value that no one will purchase it at tax sale as a revenue-producing investment. Much of the property involved is of local and environmental value, and it is attractive as a permanent investment at the price which would have to be paid to clear it of the tax obligation.

"The arrears in most instances originally accumulated through the inability of owners to raise the money with which to pay them. It is probable that many of the owners would make an exceptional effort to clear the property, if relieved of the burden of the accumulated penalties and cost."

The Commissioners are officially advised that an occasional act of that nature works a public benefit by inducing unusual efforts on the part of many delinquent taxpayers to liquidate their overdue taxes, and thus bring into the treasury a considerable sum payment of which might otherwise be indefinitely delayed.

NEW PLAN PROPOSED TO COLLECT TAXES

Commissioners Ask That Penalties and Costs Be Eliminated.

With a request for its early enactment, the Commissioners today forwarded to Congress a bill authorizing them to receive arrears of taxes due in the District of Columbia to July 1, 1908, at 6 per cent interest per annum, in lieu of penalties and costs.

The Commissioners say that this bill if enacted would, doubtless, have the same effect as that passed by Congress February 15, 1902, and several other similar acts, under which nearly $500,000 arrears of taxes have been collected.

"In many instances," the Commissioners say in a letter to Senator Gallinger, chairman of the Senate Committee on the District of Columbia, "the property which the proposed legislation is designed to relieve is encumbered with arrears, penalties and costs to an amount which so nearly equals its sale value that no one will purchase it at tax sale as a revenue-producing investment. Much of the property involved is of local and environmental value, and it is attractive as a permanent investment at the price which would have to be paid to clear it of the tax obligation."

"The arrears in most instances originally accumulated through the inability of owners to raise the money with which to pay them. It is probable that many of the owners would make an exceptional effort to clear the property, if relieved of the burden of the accumulated penalties and cost."

The Commissioners are officially advised that an occasional act of that nature works a public benefit by inducing unusual efforts on the part of many delinquent taxpayers to liquidate their overdue taxes, and thus bring into the treasury a considerable sum payment of which might otherwise be indefinitely delayed.

"Jewel" Fireless Cooker

Yes, the "Jewel" Fireless Cooker will brown roasts and bake bread and pastry just as thoroughly and as quickly as a range. And the food tastes better, as none of the flavor is lost in the steam of cooking. Most cookers will not brown roasts and so will do only half of the work the "Jewel" does. We have a demonstrator at work on the first floor of our store showing how to use these cookers—how to save hours of kitchen work daily and how to save most of the fuel bill. Come in and let her explain them to you. It's interesting.

The "Jewel" is the Only Fireless Cooker that is Completely Lined With Aluminum

A Fireless Cooker saves so much time that it is economy to buy only the best. The "Jewel" Cooker is the only fireless cooker made that is entirely lined with pure aluminum, and will not rust through, wear out from rust or tarnish and make the food taste. With the "Jewel" you can let the meal cook while you are away or otherwise occupied, and when you return a hot meal is ready to serve. The food does not need watching, as it will not cook dry nor burn.
